AN ACT

For the relief of Tibor Horvath.

Tibor Horvath.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Tibor Horvath the sum of $1,000, in full satisfaction of his claim against the United States for refund of the amount of the bonds posted with the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the Department of Justice in the case of Tibor Horvath and his wife, Agnes B. Horvath, and declared breached by such Service when the said Tibor Horvath and Agnes B. Horvath failed to depart in accordance with the terms of such bonds although they were subsequently granted permanent residence in the United States: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
